Description
4 Bedroom Detached House – Contemporary Family Living in Palodia, Limassol
This 4-bedroom detached house is part of an exclusive residential project located in the peaceful area of Palodia, just 15 minutes by car from Limassol city centre. Designed to high construction standards, the home offers a comfortable and refined living environment ideal for modern family life.
The house features spacious and thoughtfully planned interior areas, with a layout that balances open living spaces and private zones. The main living and dining areas are bright and welcoming, creating a comfortable setting for everyday living and family gatherings. The kitchen is designed for practicality and seamlessly integrates with the living areas, supporting modern lifestyles.
All three bedrooms are generously sized, providing comfort, privacy, and flexibility for family members, guests, or a home office.
Large windows enhance natural light, while quality finishes throughout ensure durability and a contemporary aesthetic.
Situated in a quiet residential neighbourhood, the property benefits from a calm suburban atmosphere while remaining close to schools, local amenities, and main road connections. This 3-bedroom house is ideal for permanent residence, offering space, privacy, and long-term value in one of Limassol's desirable suburban locations.
