

Land in Pissouri, Limassol

For Sale : € 414,570

Description
Residential plot of 2,825 m² located in the desirable area of Pissouri, offering excellent development and investment potential in one of Cyprus's emerging coastal locations.
The land falls within a residential zone with a building factor of 25%, while also benefiting from proximity to tourist-zoned areas with 20% density, making it especially attractive for future growth and value appreciation.
Situated in the area where the planned Pissouri Marina is expected to be developed, the property is also close to land acquired by major developers such as Kotsonis & Koulermos and Aristo, highlighting the strong investment prospects of the surrounding region.
An ideal opportunity for investors or private buyers seeking land in a strategic location with long-term development potential near the coast.
