Local amenities including shops, restaurants, schools, and the beaches of Larnaca Bay are all within easy reach.

Overall Opportunity
The combination of an exceptionally generous plot size of over 12,000 m², favourable zoning regulations, and a prime location with strong infrastructure links makes this property a standout option for residential development or long-term investment. With continued growth in demand for residential property in the broader Larnaca area, the plot offers excellent potential for value appreciation and end-user demand, particularly suited to multi-unit residential development.
