

1 Bedroom Apartment in Chloraka, Paphos

For Sale : € 255,000

Description
1 Bedroom Apartment.
Equal attention has been given to the acoustic environment. Full-height lift-and-slide patio doors with enhanced sound insulation keep the outside world where it belongs, allowing your home to be filled with natural light and panoramic views while preserving the peace and quiet that define true comfort.

Every apartment is fully equipped with air conditioning, KNX Smart Home automation, and access to the residents' communal gym and swimming pool, ensuring that modern living is as effortless as it is intuitive.

At the heart of the development lies a beautifully landscaped communal area, thoughtfully designed for relaxation and connection. Whether beginning the day with a refreshing swim or unwinding beside the pool as the sun sets over Paphos, the outdoor spaces at project invite residents to embrace the Mediterranean lifestyle to its fullest.

For investors, project represents far more than a prime property in a sought-after location. Our dedicated property management team takes care of every aspect of holiday rentals, from guest bookings and check-ins to day-to-day operations, providing a truly hassle-free ownership experience. With Paphos attracting visitors throughout the year, your investment is positioned to generate income from the moment it is ready to welcome guests.
